Travel from Louisville east toward Frankfort to experience Kentucky’s finest: thoroughbred horses, farm-fresh Southern cuisine and award-winning bourbon. Join us on this full-day excursion and discover the unbridled spirit of the Bluegrass State, featuring a tour of the Saxony Horse Farm, lunch at Addie’s Restaurant, and tastings at the Buffalo Trace Distillery.

8:30 AM Depart from the Galt House Hotel Main Lobby

10:00 AM Arrive at Saxony Horse Farm for Tour

Saxony Farm, in Versailles Kentucky covers 165 acres of prime Bluegrass, and is a peaceful, nurturing environment where Thoroughbreds are raised and trained under Broussard and Rosie Hundley, both of whom have spent their lives working with horses.

11:15 AM Depart for Addie's Restaurant in Versailles for Lunch (provided)

Started in 2008 by husband and wife team Bruce and Linda Parker, Addie’s features delicious Southern dining. Located on the first floor of the historic Woodford Inn, Addie’s is the complete Southern experience with homemade dishes and local flair.

1:15 PM Depart for Buffalo Trace Distillery Tour

The world’s most award-winning distillery! For over 200 years, our Distillery has been defined by a dedication to one craft: making fine bourbon whiskey. By honoring tradition and embracing change, Buffalo Trace Distillery has earned its place of leadership among the legendary spirits makers of the world. The Trace Tour begins with an engaging video of the history of Buffalo

Trace Distillery. You will then walk amidst the path of rolling bourbon barrels. You will be captivated by the alluring smell and atmosphere of bourbon sleeping inside the aging warehouses. Then you will go inside the renowned Blanton’s Bottling Hall where you will see signature bourbons being filled, sealed, labeled, and packaged—all by hand. This tour includes a tasting of some of our award-winning products.

3:30 PM Depart for return to Galt House Hotel (arrive by 5:00 p.m.)
